NOTICE TO CITY SUBSCRIBERS.

Wishing to confine our business as near as ssible to the CASH SYSTEM, we have deterfined hereafter to collect our subscriptions, within the city, QUARTERLY. To carry this determination into effect, we have placed our whole city list in the hands of Mr. JOHN JACK-SON, long connected with our Office as Clerk, who will make the collections, and also attend to the delivery of the Papers, and see that subscribers are served punctually. We hope this arrangement will be satisfactory to all parties. Those who may desire to save them selves the necessity of making four payments during the year, can, if they prefer it, pay in advance for the whole year.

Have we no enterprising gentleman in the Southern, or any other portion of the city, who will establish a regular line of Omnibuses on College or Market street, from the Square to the City Cemetery, or to the Southera line of the corporation? It is a subject after giving the concern of Samuel Swan & that will bear investigation. The Picagane says that in those quarters of the city where the turbulent, in former times, congregated at night comparative order and quiet prevails.

Mr. Rarey's career has unexpectedly been stopped. He had cleared some £15,000 to £20,000 by his horse-taming secret, when suddenly Routledge, the cheap publisher, got hold of a pamphlet published by the horsetamer in America, and printed it. It contains in a small compass all the art of horse taming; and the subscribers, who had bound themselves not to divulge the secret under a penalty of £500, became furious, and Mr. Rarey had to release them from their pledge, in a letter in the Times.

A PROFITABLE BUSINESS .- At the meeting of the Stockholders of the Company of Wheeler & Wilson's Sewing Machine, held in Bridgeport on Wednesday last a dividend of fifty per cent. was declared, and a year ago a dividend of forty per cent. The capital stock is one hundred and sixty thousand dollars. The stock is now at a premium of 300 per cent. The Company are now manufacturing at Bridgeport, fifty machines per day, and keep 250 men in constant employment. They pay the patentee of one particular combination in their machine ten dollars for each machine they manufacture. The same peculiarity is also adopted in the Grover & Baker and the Singer machines, and the same sum paid

About this time last year the cashier of the London and South-eastern Railway Company telegraphed to the various stations along the line to the effect that the clerks were not receiving any notes of the Lewes Bank which might be tendered as payment, as the bank had stopped payment. There was no truth in the statement, which had its origin in a misconception, but the result was a run upon the bank, and to meet this run the bank had to maintain its credit by selling its securities at a serious loss. If the intimation of the stoppage had been confined to the servants of the railway the action would not have been maintainable, for had its origin in a misconception, but the the communication would have been held to have been privileged, but the railway people went beyond this, and publicly posted the stoppage of the Lewes Bank at their stations, together with the stoppage of the Hastings

MEMPHUS, TENN, April 2, 1858.

Y. DAY, Esq.:-In answer to your enquiries concerning the Grover & Baker Sewing Machine I purchased from you, I wish to give a fair and impartial comparison. I have used Singer's Machine in my establishment, and after a thorough and long trial found it an inconvenient and troublesome Machine. The person who runs it must be well acquainted with Machinery to operate it successfully. It has too much machinery, and its shuttle and other work is troublesome and complicated. I next got a Wheeler & Wilson's machine, and after testing it fairly, found it would not answer. It easily gets out of repair, the thread must be wound off the spools and run into found very inconvenient for continuous use. It is not adapted, either, for heavy work, owing to all these inconveniences.
